

"The Fine Print" - Booking Studio Space at Helia by the Hour

Your booking time comes with a “buffer zone” of 30 minutes on either end of your booked time, allowing for setup and breakdown of your event if necessary.

Helia is not affiliated with its hourly renters. Helia is not responsible for advertising or populating your event. At Helia’s sole discretion, Helia may repost any social media advertisements posted by renters of the space. If you would like to discuss a recurring event affiliated with Helia, please contact info@heliaglow.com.

Bookings are nonrefundable. When you book the space, it becomes unavailable to other potential renters. If you need to cancel your event, you may reschedule with Helia if 30 days notice is given.

Helia is not responsible for any lost or stolen belongings.

Helia reserves the right to cancel and refund your booking if the event is deemed unsafe or unsuitable to the space.

No illegal activities, smoking, or drug use is permitted.

Please reach out to us with questions regarding maximum occupancy. For parties, we usually encourage renters to visit the space to determine if the size fits their needs. For yoga classes, we recommend a maximum class size of 15 in order to leave room for mats.

Renters are responsible for leaving the space as they found it. Please wipe down any used mats or equipment and take all personal belongings and trash with you.

The renter is responsible for any damage to the studio or equipment that occurs during their rental period.

If you think your event will be loud or noisy, please let us know so we can alert our other tenants.

Insurance may be required depending on the type of event taking place.
